The Parable of the Great Banquet • Luke 14:15-24

TAKEAWAY #1:

Life's busyness can often overshadow God's invitation to live in His kingdom.

¹⁸ But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. Please have me excused.'¹⁹ And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to examine them. Please have me excused.'²⁰ And another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.' Luke. 14:18-20

TAKEAWAY #2:

God's kingdom attracts the most broken of people.

²¹ So the servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house became angry and said to his servant, 'Go out quickly to the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor and crippled and blind and lame.'²² And the servant said, 'Sir, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.'²³ And the master said to the servant, 'Go out to the highways and hedges and compel people to come in, that my house may be filled.'²⁴ For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste my banquet.' " Luke 14:21-24
