The Parables of Jesus (The Good Samaritan) • Luke 10:25-37

TAKEAWAY #1: Anyone within our reach is considered our neighbor.

²⁹*But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"* Luke 10:29

TAKEAWAY #2: Loving God without loving our neighbor is a contradiction in God's Kingdom.

³¹*Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. ³²So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion.* Luke 10:31-33

TAKEAWAY #3: Love will always cost us something.

³⁴*He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. ³⁵And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.'* Luke 10:34-35

BIG TAKEAWAY: When we respond with compassion to those in need, we love God and reveal His love to the world around us.
